

Alley Cat by Claire Violet

Phonemic Awareness	Phonics	Vocabulary	Fluency, Expression, Pace	Comprehension	Reading/Writing Link
Letter patterns giving the same sound – “-ey” alley, “-e” me & “-ee” tree Word ending – ed	Noun changes at end of sentences encourage attending to initial letters to decode “ch” digraph	Topic specific – “alley cat” Determine alternatives to “chased”	Maintain fluency throughout last sentence that is spread across two pages One line per page encourages consistent 1-1 matching	Understand simple narrative structure <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Main character ○ Problem/solution ○ Simple sequence of events Illustration/text match	Practice writing in same genre – simple narrative – using similar techniques learned from text/author Write a story with an interesting ending

Guided Reading Level: Emergent
C