

Baron Rescue Dog by Lola Schaefer

Phonemic Awareness	Phonics	Vocabulary	Fluency, Expression, Pace	Comprehension	Reading/Writing Link
What “sound” words might we insert on post it notes to “hear” the action in this book? le, page 4, “Click, click, click went Baron’s toe nails on the rocks.”	There are opportunities in this book for decoding unfamiliar and longer words through syllabication... mountain partners	rescue save release liberate set free abandon (antonym)	Scan sentences to identify which words go together to establish meaning and encourage expression/fluency.	How does the author use descriptive action to carry this plot? Can you list some of those phrases on a post it note to share with us? Guided Writing/Comprehending Author’s Style Look back through your writing... have you written about one incident in which you could use descriptive action to show the reader more than tell the reader?	“What have we learned about rescue dogs through reading this book?” List on a chart under “We Think” and “We Know” headings. “ Source: Book Note by Margaret E. Mooney

Guided Reading Level: Early 4