

Misty Sleeps by Daisy Parker

Phonemic Awareness	Phonics	Vocabulary	Fluency, Expression, Pace	Comprehension	Reading/Writing Link
	Contractions Page 4—second word. What two words would say the same thing? What letter is missing? What takes the place of the 'o'?	Use and function of apostrophe in contractions and possessives Meaning of like the way it's used in this story	Recognizing groups of words that go together to aid expression and pace.	Negative comparison Page 5—What do you notice in the text on this page that is similar to the text on page 4? What does Lisa's dog do that Misty doesn't do? And what does Sara's dog do that Misty doesn't do? What does the illustration show about the two dogs? One is..., and one is...	Chart a list of common contractions Comparison chart Ex: things adults do that kids don't do; things cats do that dogs don't do. Use the chart as a graphic organizer to write a story.

Guided Reading Level: Early 3
E