

Walking by the Rio by Adrian Warren

Phonemic Awareness	Phonics	Vocabulary	Fluency, Expression, Pace	Comprehension	Reading/Writing Link
rhyming: grow, flat crow cat dive beehive How does the author use the rhythm and rhyme to capture the readers' attention?	chilies page 2 /es/ chili - chilies church – churches family – families movie – movies table - tables carry – carries Create a 3 column chart for students to word sort based upon how the ending works: <table border="1" data-bbox="275 776 667 935"> <thead> <tr> <th>+es</th> <th>+s</th> <th>y to i + es</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>chilies</td> <td>movies</td> <td>carries</td> </tr> <tr> <td>churche</td> <td>tables</td> <td>families</td> </tr> <tr> <td>s</td> <td></td> <td></td> </tr> <tr> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	+es	+s	y to i + es	chilies	movies	carries	churche	tables	families	s						What other words might the author have chosen to use besides walking? walking strolling sauntering meandering ambling rambling on foot under your own steam flat level even smooth horizontal Use the front cover book note to extend vocabulary	Can you read this story aloud with your voice expressively capturing the rhyme and rhythm?	What clues does the author use to help you understand this setting? This author uses a technique to shift the reader from scene to scene...what do you think it might be? (repeated refrain) Have you ever tried using a repeating refrain in your writing? How might it sound?	Endings: repeating back This author uses a repeated line or idea in the opening and closing of the story: (walking by the Rio, where the green chilies grow walking by the Rio where the red chilies dry) Let's talk about a small detail you might weave into your beginning and ending so you "circle" back like this author has.
+es	+s	y to i + es
chilies	movies	carries
churche	tables	families
s

Guided Reading Level: Fluent 1